WHO SPONSORS REFUGEES?

You Might Have Rich Jewish Relatives

Affidavits from American Suckers

WHAT IS A REFUGEE ?

A refugee is a kike
On a hike
From the Reich ! !

Speaking of refugees and Hitler, we wish to state our position.

THE BROOM does not approve of the Gestapo methods of dealing with "undesirables" in Germany; we do not approve of loss of civil liberties by the non-Jewish opponents of National Socialism; we do not approve of concentration camps for political prisoners; we do not approve of the SOCIALIST doctrines whether national or international. In fact we are opposed to them all.

BUT we do not approve of the Jewish subversive methods of cheating, tricking, robbing and boycotting those who oppose trickery and expose it. We do not approve of the strife producing, war mongering activities of Jews in history ever since they appeared upon the planet. In this attitude of theirs, by which they consider themselves a divinely ordained and privileged race, empowered to rule and take over the rule of the planet and its inhabitants, Jews are a world menace. For this they were held in captivity in Egypt, where Joseph used the NEW DEAL methods to enslave economically the Egyptians by regulating agriculture for them in the seven lean years as well as the preceding seven rich years; but this attempt at NEW DEAL dictatorship backfired on the Jews. The Egyptians deposed the tricksters and deprived them of all political privileges. So Moses had to take the criminal tribe out of Egypt and held them captives for 40 years in the Sinai desert in a secret agreement with the Egyptian government. Moses was an Egyptian and sacrificed himself to rid his country of the pest. Hitler might be a reincarnation of Moses; he knows the tribe. He has fits of anger like Moses.

Babylonians Found Them Out

The next group of white people to take protective measures against Jewish aspirations of making the world their slaves, are recorded to have been the Babylonians. They took the mongrel tribe into captivity. During that period the Rabbis wrote "Mein Kampf", only they called it the Books of Moses, etc. But it is the perfect outline of the past, present and future plans of the Jews, as specially privileged people of Jehovah, to assume rulership of the planet. That is how the "Old Testament" originated. Read it and realize what ambitions the Jews have and the bloody, criminal methods they use as "divine instructions" to materialize this world conquest. And the churches fell for it.

They Crucify the Christ

When the announced Messiah appears, Herodes attempts to murder HIM in infancy by murdering all the year old children. Marvellous Jewish doctrine! Henrich Himmler never went that far. Stalin, Yes.

But HE escapes assassination, takes over the temple grounds in the name of the House of David into which HE was adopted, not born, drives the money changers out of the tribal patrimony and finds HIMSELF nailed to the cross as a criminal. He exposes the Jewish ambitions all through HIS teachings and warns against them.

JEWS in Germany

We do not blame Hitler anymore for driving the Jews out of Germany than we will blame the American people for doing the same if this country is plunged by them into war. There will be more refugees FROM the U. S. if this transpires than ever left Germany. In the state of New York, where there are more Jews per square mile than anywhere else in the world, the people have voted, more than two to one, against going to war with Hitler to avenge the Jews. Still our part Jew President and half Jew Churchill, with half Jew La Guardia are driving the country deeper into the war.

Finding Sponsors for Refugees

You never realized how many rich relatives you have in Europe. But here, you might be surprised. There might be a rich legacy waiting for you if you claim kinship with your rich relatives. Don't tell me you would refuse to acknowledge your rich cousins, aunts, nephews who have thousands of dollars on deposit in New York banks, now frozen, but which could be made available as soon as you signed an affidavit that recognized your blood ties with your wealthy Jewish relatives.

Neither did Messrs. Rutherford & Dort, of San Diego, know that they, too, were so fortunate; that they would not have to worry about financial matters anymore, if they only would help their dear relatives to come to this country. Why, don't you know that Jews always stick up for their relatives, especially for those who prove their loyalty in times of "persecution" ?

How surprised must Rutherford & Dort have been to discover that they both, or either of them, not specified which one, was to become one of the CHOSEN PEOPLE by adoption !

VIA AIRMAIL
Messrs. Rutherford & Dort

San Diego, California.
Dear Sirs:

My friend, Mr. A. Frankenhuis, sent me the enclosed copy of his letter to you, which I received this morning.

I would be very glad if you could give him an affidavit. As he informs you, he has an account with the Guaranty Trust Co. here in New York amounting to approx. $11,000.—and if you desire so I can send you by return a confirmation from the Guaranty Trust Company.

I have also sent him an affidavit of one of my American relatives, but the Consul does not consider this sufficient because it is not an affidavit of a relative.

I would be very glad to hear from you by return, and thank you very much in advance.

Yours very truly,
RUDI BAER.

Dears Sirs,

You will be astonished to receive a letter from somebody, who uptill the present has been a stranger to you.

At first permit me, to introduce me to you, I am a cousin of yours, being a son from Meier Frankenhuis who lived and died at Haaksbergen (Holland). Just four months before the war I went to France with my wife and child, and owing to the invasion of the Germans I was obliged to fly. I am now living at NIZAS par Samatan (GERS) in NON-OCCUPIED FRANCE, awaiting the visa to permit me to emigrate to the United States.

However, in order to get these visa for my family I want an affidavit of support, preferently from parents who are American citizens. Therefore I ad-

F D R Infallible, Says Mallon

WASHINGTON,—Now I do not mean any citizen in time of emergency or even in war is required to applaud all the president's acts. The president is two official persons. He is first the elected political leader, and therefore the government head. As such, his every act is subject to criticism as long as this remains a democracy. But, second, he is commander-in-chief of the army and navy, and when he speake in that capacity, to me, he speaks infallibly.

President Above God ?

Paul Mallon reveals in the above the same imbecility which afflicts the dictatorships. It is quite evident that socalled "Americans" even so highly "intelligent" ones, like Mallon, are still morons in matters of REALITY. In reality God Rules Supreme.

Therefore it could not possibly be "patriotic" to break the TEN COMMANDMENTS and make the president "infallible" even as comander-in-chief of the army and navy. The ancient Romans and Persians made gods of their rulers and both empires have vanished as important factors in civilization.

Now Mallon reveals the same streak of imbecility and we must confess, this he has in-common with millions of "intelligent" Americans. That is why we have the NEW DEAL, that is why Jewish Communists are studding our federal key-positions. This same idea of God transferring power over life and death, right and wrong, upon [illegible] commander-in-chief can be found in the Old Testament, where Jehovah is supposed to have empowered the Jews, as the "Chosen People" to rape, murder and pillage all other nations and rule and ruin them.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt is neither God, nor infallible. He is a cripple in mind and body the moment he sets himself up against God. And the whole nation cripples itself, and commits wanton suicide, when it follows his leadership in that line. Only by OBEDIENCE to God and HIS Commandments that individuals and nations can prosper, be well, happy and strong.

Senator Asks Action In Propagandist Probe

WASHINGTON,—Sen. Gerald P. Nye (R-ND) said that he plans an attempt to force a senate committee to report out a resolution calling for the investigation of all foreign propagandists in the United States.

The resolution, sponsored by Sen. Bennett Clark (D-Mo) has been buried by the senate audit and control committee for months, Nye said.

Jews Fail to Swing State for War

War Foes Far Ahead As N. Y. Poll Ends

NEW YORK,—The New York Daily News said the final result of its state-wide poll on whether the United States should enter the war to help Great Britain defeat Hitler showed 122,802 persons opposed entry and 51,507 favored it.

Returns indicated, the News said, that if each of the 6,960,110 registered voters in New York state voted, opponents of participation would win by a margin of 2,853,000 votes.

SHIFTING SCENES

I started to cry but I laughed instead
At the little things which upset my nerve.
A change in the weather, a spiteful word,
Could make me lose some of my vim and verve.

The world is just full of wonderful things,
So don't let a trifle seem like a crime.
Each day has its beauties, new wonders unfold.
Just say to yourself, better luck next time.
—Emelda Deshaies.

Communists Threaten de Aryan

Editor Pickets Federal Building

Believing that ours is a government of, by and for the people, C. Leon de Aryan, walked up and down for an hour in front of the P. O. building Thursday noon, carrying a sign: "COMMUNISM is a MENACE—We Want NO WAR—The President MUST UPHOLD the Constitution", on one side. The other side of the sign read: "Save AMERICAN Lives FIRST—Why KILL and Maim OUR Boys for British, Jewish and Wall Street Bankers—Save AMERICAN Boys First".

The hour of picketing was almost over when a husky Communist youth objected to the carrying of the sign. Two other Communists joined him and the youth announced that he would take the sign away from de Aryan. Some bystanders became curious and stepped nearer to see what was happening. The Communists must have figured they had too many witnesses for they changed their minds and left.

How remarkable that Communists always yell loudest for the SACRED RIGHT to picket, but when somebody else pickets and exposes them as a national menace, which they are, immediately they threaten to resort to force and violence. That is how originally peaceful labor unions have been transformed into brutal, soviet cells and dictatorships.

Religious Objector Held For Evading Draft

SAN FRANCISCO,—George Gaskill, 25 of Mill Valley, was held in the county jail in lieu of $1000 bond charged with evading the draft.

The youth told Asst. U. S. Atty. Joseph Karesh his religious convictions had convinced him he should not register, and asked an opportunity to consult with officials of his church.

U. S. Commissioner E. E. Williams postponed for six days his arraignment to give the youth time to determine principles of his faith.

Winston (Leonard) Spencer Churchill

The following article is taken from the official publication of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. It appears in the "Wisconsin Magazine of History"—Sept. 1924, page 43 of Volume VIII, Number 1.

"Captain Pollycarpers von Schneidan settled in 1841 on the southwest shore of Pine Lake. He belonged to the staff of Prince Oscar of Sweden, was his best friend and daily companion until he became enamored of a great beauty—Fraecken Jacobson, a Swedish Jewess. As it was an infringement upon the matrimonial code of Sweden for a Jew and Gentile to marry, they journeyed across the channel to Denmark where they were united and then came to this country (America) joining the colony at Pine Lake.

"Mayor Ogden of Chicago induced Capt. von Schneidan to go to Chicago and afterwards adopted his daughter, Pauline. Their fortunes changed after removal to Chicago and they lived very comfortably. Their home was frequented by many of the best people of the city.

"Pauline von Schneidan was sent east to school and, while there, met the son of Leonard Jerome, whom she married.

"Their daughter, Jennie, became Lady Carnavallis—West of England, whose son, Winston (Leonard) Spencer Churchill, was First Lord of the British Admiralty."

"de Aryan Comments"

Government of, for & by the People

(Over KGB, Tuesday 8:30 pm, July 15, 1941)

FRED—I read in the papers where the U. S. Supreme Court has ruled that picketing is a part of the Right of Free Speech which must be protected in the United States. What do you think of it, daddy?

DAD—In a well ordered society picketing could not exist, because people would arrange their affairs according to right principle. Picketing is resorted to as a publicity stunt and to intimidate or even terrorize. But all it proves is that we are way behind in intelligent application of our sense of justice; in the exercise of our powers to do justice to one another.

FRED—If picketing is such a bad sign of social progress, why is it that you have been picketing the pickets yourself in front of the Golden Lion Cafe, at Whitney's and the San Diego Hotel? Why have you been picketing even in front of the Post Office last week?

DAD—That's the world we are living in. As far as I am concerned jails are entirely unnecessary, so are armies and navies, because if everybody would live as I live and think as I think, violence would be something belonging to the dark ages. But the world is still in the dark ages where reason ceases and force is substituted. So, you see, we still call the police to handle criminals and when necessary we take to picketing in order to make a public protest against bad conditions which should be rectified.

FRED—But daddy, two wrongs don't make a right. Is it wrong when the other fellow pickets and is it right when you picket?

DAD—Is it right for the policeman to grab a burglar or a holdup man, and even knock him in the head if he fights back?

FRED—I see what you mean.

DAD—If the policeman uses no more force than is necessary to stop the commission of a crime or take an offender into custody, he is not doing anything wrong. And just so, as long as we give back to the pickets a dose of their own medicine to queer their game, we are doing what the policeman does. It is not only our right but our duty to protect ourselves.

"Co-ed's Rout Pickets

FRED—The girls at the CO-ED drive-in cafe must have had lots of fun last Friday when they picketed the pickets and drove them away.

DAD—That was on El Cajon Blvd. But you must not imagine that it is very funny. It's a mighty grim business and very nerve wracking. I know it. To have to take all the dirty jibes from the ignorant brutes and hoodlums and at times even get beaten up is not as funny as it sounds to inexperienced people. But the girls of the CO-ED drive-in cafe made a thorough job of it.

FRED—What was it all about?

DAD—The AFL union wanted the owners of the CO-ED and TOPSY'S to sign a blanket contract by which they were to force all the girls waiting and serving in the two cafes to join the union but Mrs. Pearl Brown, and her son Charles, refused to sign such a contract. So the AFL started picketing the two places. But one of the girls got herself a costume of a red she-devil, with tail and horns and the rest of the paraphernalia and made a sign reading: I am the Mother of all Unions,—and other girls dressed up in their uniforms crarried also signs saying that they were not on strike and were quite satisfied with their employers. About 30, beautiful young girls, in all, started to picket the pickets so successfully, the place was packed with customers; so the Union called off their pickets.

Picketing the Federal Building

FRED—But I did not see anything about it in the daily papers nor about your picketing the Post Office, that's funny, I think.

DAD—Oh well, Freddy, if the dailies carried all the important news, then there would be no need for weekly papers. But that's where the weeklies come in, to carry the news items and give editorial information where the dailies fall down.

FRED—Why did you picket the Post Office?

DAD—Fred, you were not born yet when the women in the U. S. were picketing the Washington Capitol, the White House and the Supreme Court, demanding equal rights for women and votes for women. But they finally got it. Some of them were beaten up and others chained themselves to the railing in the galleries of Congress, but they won out.

FRED—But daddy are not women just as good as men are? Why should anybody refuse them the right to vote?

DAD—That's just it. While we prate about liberty in these U. S. every liberty here had to be battled for in a long and heart breaking struggle. First, we had to fight the British crown; then, we had to fight all the bad remnants of British law and precedent and we still are not free from them. Lincoln had to fight the British inheritance of black slavery when Britain sided with the Confederacy against the Union. And because England had not given the vote to women when this Republic was born, the women here had to fight for it themselves. And they did it also by picketing to attract public attention to the injustice. Our politicians do not pay attention and are not guided by truth, equity and principle, I am sorry to say. They are only afraid of votes and of loss of patronage. Few there are who stand up for principle for its own sake. All of them, as well as myself, have taken the oath of allegiance to uphold the constitution against all enemies, foreign and domestic, but in practice too many of them simply ignore the constitution as if it was something that has gone out with the horse and buggy age. But I take my oath of allegiance mighty seriously.

FRED—What did they do that you had to picket the Post Office to protest?

DAD—The constitution says that treaties with foreign nations can be made by the President only with approval of two-thirds of the Senate, but this was not done when President Roosevelt occupied Iceland. Iceland is a foreign nation and even though they asked for troops, our constitution prevails. Senator Taft called attention to it in his protest in the Senate and I did so by picketing the Post Office, because that is where our federal offices are. I could not go to picket the White House or the Capitol, because they are too far away, but I did my duty to uphold the Constitution with the next best thing to it. Neither has the President power to make war because that power is vested in the Congress, so I called attention to it on my sign and Congressman Ed Izac has an office in the Federal Building here.

FRED—Do you think they know in Washington about your protest, daddy?

DAD—I am quite sure they do. A dozen people called the Postmaster on the phone and wanted to know what he was going to do about it.

FRED—What did he say?

DAD—He told them I was within my rights to picket the Post Office and protest all I wanted.

FRED—Did anybody interfer with you?

DAD—Most people seemed to approve of it. A few called me some dirty names, they did not seem to realize what government by the people means. The government is responsible to us, the people, for keeping the constitution sacred and it is our duty to tell them that they must respect it and keep their oaths of office. If we fall down in doing our duty to keep them straight, its our fault and we are equally guilty with them. Just one man tried some rough stuff, but he changed his mind.

FRED—What did he do?

DAD—He grabbed my sign and also my papers and was going to jerk them away from me, but I looked him straight in the eye and told him he would be sorry five minutes later. So he asked me what right I had to picket the U. S. Post Office and I told him I had as much right as the pickets had in picketing the White House for six weeks. This is a free country where the people can talk back to their government when the administration itself breaks the law.

Sacrifice:—President and International Bankers

FRED—I heard the President's talk over the radio where he asked us to make sacrifices. Is it true that ex-President Hoover never collected a cent in salary as long as he was president? Did President Roosevelt sacrifice his salary, too, when he asked us to sacrifice?

DAD—You are right, Fred. Mr. Hoover never collected a cent for his services and I have not heard either President Roosevelt or any of his cabinet offering to make sacrifices and work for nothing during this socalled great emergency. Neither did the Big Bankers offer to give up the interest they are collecting from the country for the billions of defense bonds, to show their patriotism and willingness to make equal sacrifices.

Britain Financed Hitler

FRED—Do you think Russia is going to lick Hitler, daddy?

DAD—A high British official who heads the Commission that is buying war supplies for London from the U. S. has already answered this question in a public interview that was published in the papers. He said that England does not want Russia to lick Germany, because in that case Russia would dominate Europe and Asia and would be a menace to the British.

FRED—But are the British not helping Stalin against Hitler?

DAD—Fred, you must remember that originally it was British money from the munition industries that financed Hitler and got him into power because the British were afraid of Communism spreading in Europe and Asia. Britain does not want Communism to rule the old country today anymore, than it did six years ago. This is a war that shows to the whole world how wars are made and fought. Its a war for the balance of power and control of markets as well as natural resources. The belligerents shift places over night. One day they are enemies and the next day they fight side by side.

FRED—Do you mean to say that England would fight with Hitler to keep Russia from ruling Europe?

DAD—As long as Hitler is strong, England will let him fight it out with Stalin. But should Stalin get the upper hand, the world would get the greatest surprise ever. England never fights to uphold democracy. England is a monarchy with world markets and world commerce and world colonies. That is what England is fighting for and whoever endangers her standing becomes her enemy. England always gets somebody else to do her fighting for her so she can keep the balance of power after the fighters are exhausted and want to make peace. Then England dictates the peace, because she did save her troops and managed to get other nations to do the destructive fighting. You can rest assured England will never let Stalin get the upperhand. She invested a whole lot to set up Hitler and she will keep them balanced against each other that she may continue to rule her world empire.

Raw Food — Vitamins

FRED—Daddy, you promised last week to say something more about diet tonight.

DAD—Yes, so I did. Those of our audience who are interested in right living will get a very simple and effective rule tonight, which will save them from many a sickness. Simply produce your own vitamins. Now vitamins are not contained in capsules, as every Naturopathic Doctor will tell them if they read naturopathic literature. The Naturopathic Doctors say that vitamins are produced in the human organism when we eat the right foods. The best rule is this: Don't eat anything cooked, steamed or baked, if you can eat it raw. That's all there it to it. Eat fruit salads, combination salads with oil, no vinegar. Raw carrots, parsley, garlic and lettuce makes a good salad. Use also onions raw. Remember its the simple things that bring results. Anything you can eat raw, like grated cabbage, green peas, just eat it raw and watch for results. Now what are you going to play tonight, Freddy, on your harmonica?

FRED—CARRY ME BACK TO OLE VIRGINNY.

Peace Proposal: U. S. of Europe

NEW YORK,—Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia told a group of South American educators that peace proposals of the German government had been submitted "a few days ago" to a peace movement in Washington "with instructions to try it out and to prepare the foundation for its reception".

The mayor, welcoming 40 Chilean and Ecuadorean educators to New York, did not identify the peace movement.

The plan, he said, envisaged a "United states of Europe", in which various European countries would have autonomy, except that economic controls would be supervised by the German government and foreign affairs and relations would be under its control.

Me and my old man

By Helen Love

(Concluded from last week)

I sez "Fred . . . aint we got a PRESIDENT OF THIS UNITED STATES?" He sez . . . yes we got a president . . . but he is very interested in the Lords and Ladies and you know he was visited by the King and Queen a couple years ago or so and ever since then he aint been the same . . . After that visit . . . all he could seem to talk about was the British . . . and then not long after that . . . they started talking about war with Germany . . . and then England started to fight . . . The boys down to the shop all said that Thats what the K and Q came over for . . . to see if Pres., would agree to help em lick Germany . . . again.

Yes I sez . . . we went over there about 20 years ago and did that, didn't we . . . My brothers Al and Frank got killed then . . . and my uncle came back with his face blowed off and now they are back again to take my boys and blow their heads off . . . again . . . say I sez what IS this anyway . . . why should we keep fighting wars for the dirty British . . .all the time . . .anyway? . . . Well he sez . . . they say the Germans are no good and are too smart and some time they may rule the seas and England dont want nobody to be smarter than she is . . . thats why . . . and she will NOT let anybody rule them seas but her . . . I sez how did she come to be ruler of the seas in the first place who give her the right . . . I thought the seas belonged to everybody all over the world . . . But he sez No they belong to Britain . . . and thats that . . . Then I sez but how does that bring us into this thing again . . . What did England ever do for us except to borry money from us and take our men over there to help her and say we didn't help and then refuse to pay us what she owed us . . . Did Germany ever borry any money from us and not pay it back? . . . He sez No I dont think so . . . Well I sez did Germany ever try to run our business? . . . he sez no . . . well I sez then why aint we friends with Germany . . . instead of England and he didnt' say nuthin . . . so I sez . . . What have they got against the Germans over here . . . why dont you talk . . . so after a minute he sez . . . I dont know why . . . Alice . . . I aint never had no trouble with any Germans . . . but there is two Britishers down to the shop . . . on my bench thats always picking on me and talking about the King and Queen and causing trouble . . . Yes I sez and there was them Courtney Clarkstons . . .they was from some where in England and they made a lot of trouble . . . and then I sez there was them others that were neighbors over on Main st to us . . . and they were always making complaints about everything . . . to the police. He just set there and nodded his head and then he sez . . . Do you remember that German family that was named . . . Fritz something or other that was so good to us when our first baby died . . . I sez yes . . . and do you remember that Mrs. Stiffelberger . . .that we used to rent from . . . want she a good soul . . . and then all of a sudden we saw that all the Germans we had knowed were good and kind and the most trouble we had ever had was with the English and then we both got madder and madder when we thought how our sons had to go over to England to help the British and I couldn't have no more cheese and coudn't have gas for my weak ends . . . and had to give up all my pots and pans that was made of aluminum . . . to the British. . .

I was so mad I started to cry and Freddie takes me in his arms and he sez Alice . . . baby dont cry . . . we voted him in . . . we was fools enough to do that and we gotta suffer the consequences . . . go to sleep and you wont think about it no more . . . Good night.

ARE WE CHRISTIANS ?

We are a sorry joke
By trying to promote
The Christian spirit by the sword,
Instead the teachings of the Lord.

We are an ugly fraud
As missionaries abroad,
If we bring to the heathen folk
The Bible . . . and munitions bulk.

We're devils in disguise
If we try to entice
A peaceful nation into war
And what else are we headed for?

We're Christians if we say:
"Thy Will be done" I pray,
And lovingly refuse to kill,
Abiding strictly in "God's Will".

4-Day Fiesta to Offer Drama of California

A carnival, parade, horse show and nightly performances of the historical music drama, "Heart's Desire", written and produced by Jack and Pauline Millan, will be features of Chula Vista's 11th annual Fiesta de la Luna, opening Aug. 15 and continuing for four days.

"Heart's Desire", a colorful story of California in the days of the Garra Indian insurrection in 1852, will be presented in the picturesque outdoor theater, Chula Vista bowl. Valerie Postnikova, Carl Dewse, Mildred Porter and Wayland Capwell will play leading roles. Augusta Starkey will direct the chorus. The cast includes 75 singers and dancers.

Sulfanilamide Part Of Army Equipment

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.,—Sulfanilamide, "famous for its potency in combating infection", is being placed in United States army kits in a package specially designed for self-administration with one hand, Vice President George A. Mohlman, of the Package Machinery Co., announced.

Mohlman said the package was intended to provide means of self-medicaton for a soldier if wounded and separated from his unit. A simple tape opens the dirt-and-weather-protected package. As the box cover is moved back, a single tablet drops forward and can be placed in the mouth without spilling the remainder of the contents.

FDR Plan Foiled, Declares Wood

SALT LAKE CITY,— President Roosevelt intended to take over Dakar, Cape Verde and the Azores just as he took over Iceland, but army officials stepped in and prevented the occupation. And from reliable sources I also am informed that an attempt to repeal the neutrality act will be made in congress soon. But it will be defeated."

Wood termed the occupation of Iceland as "a rank, unjustifiable move to get us into war," asserting the United States took over Greenland to protect American shores and occupied Iceland to protect Greenland.

"Now, what is to prevent us from taking over Norway to protect Iceland?" he asked.

Taft Denounces Iceland Control

WASHINGTON,—Sen. Taft (R-Oho) said that occupation of Iceland by United States naval forces indicated "a deliberate policy to involve the United States in war without congressional action."

"Iceland is a part of Europe, and we are therefore now intervening in Europe," he said in a speech prepared for radio delivery. "For the first time we are sending American soldiers and sailors into the midst of the war zone . . . We are relieving 30,000 British soldiers for action at the front, and therefore for the first time taking an active military part in the war between England and Germany."

'U. S. Not Endangered'

By no stretch of the imagination, the Ohio Republican declared, can this move "be construed to be defense of the United States."

"Conceivably," he added, "it could be considered defense of the shipping lanes to England and Ireland, but passage of American ships over those lanes is now forbidden by the neutrality and lease-lend acts. It is not defense because Germany is not attacking us and we are at peace with Germany.

"Germany has made no physically hostile move in the directon of the United States. Even if Hitler made such attack, he has no fleet with which he could possibly attack this country, so that the idea that we are defending ourselves from Germany by seizing Iceland is ridiculous."

'Peoples Against War'

The people, Taft went on. had shown through various public opinion polls that they were opposed to the "policy of the war party".

The "most authoritative of these polls", he said was one undertaken by President Robert M. Hutchins, of the University of Chicago, and a group of educators and clerics. Of those questioned in this poll, he said, 79.7 percent voted "no" and 20.3 percent "yes" on the question, "Do you believe that the United States should enter the war as an active belligerent at this time?"

Londoner Suggests Appropriate Song To Honor Russia

LONDON,— The newspaper Evening Standard suggested that if Russia did not like the omission of its national song, the Internationale, from the British Broadcasting Corp.'s weekly broadcasts of Allied national anthems, the BBC could honor Moscow by playing: "You Made Me Love You; I Didn't Want To Do it."

Printer's Note: And that kicks right back at you Britishers as well as Red Russia, from these United States.

BRITONS ALWAYS PUT GREAT BRITAIN FIRST !

Why Should Americans Not Put America First ?

"I shall know but one country. The ends I aim at shall be my Country's, my God's and Truth's. I was born an American; I live an American; I shall die an American; and I intend to perform the duties incumbent upon me in that character to the end of my career."
—Daniel Webster.

"Churchill-Stalin Democracy ?"

By Edward P. E. Troy

SAN FRANCISCO,— A small minority of Americans has forgotten Washington's Farewell Address to his Countrymen, and the American principles established by the Fathers of our Country to safeguard our liberties. These simple-hearted people have fallen victims to the great deluge of British-paid-for propaganda that floods our Country. In heated passion, they loudly demand that America shall step in between the savage, figthing wolves of Europe, and separate them.

Britain, and now including Stalin, is the chief beneficiary of their emotion. The European wolves run in pairs, Britain and Stalin, Hitler and Mussolini, not in packs, today. Tomorrow it might be Britain and Hitler, or Britain and Mussolini, and the other two against them.

These deluded Americans are demanding that American boys, the choicest pick of the land—your boys, remember, your boys, not their boys—shall, after being impressed into our American defense army, be sent over the Atlantic Ocean to battle for Britain and Stalin.

They demand that our young boys, the best that we have, shall shed their blood for "democracy", the kind of "democracy" that prevails in Britain and Russia today. There is little or no difference between the two. The American people have a very clear idea of the Russian, the Stalin, kind of "democracy". Its evils, its horrors, have been shown them in newspaper, pulpit, political forum, and every other kind of publicity for the past twenty-five years.

The British form of "democracy" has been offered us more in the style of the wolf, the lamb and Little Red Riding Hood. The bales of scalps of men, women, boys and girls found in the baggage of General Burgoyne's army, after it surrendered to the American Revolutionary ragged army at Saratoga, were merely vouchers for the money and scalping knives paid the Indians.

Promoting the dismemberment of our American Union, during the Civil War, was merely aiding in the spread of democracy. The blowing of Sepoys from the mouths of cannon, and the more recent bloody incidents at Amritzar, as well as the imprisonment of Nehru, were merely evidence of British benevolence towards the Hindoos.

Buying negro labor in South Africa from their Chief, at one cent per day, and driving them to building railroads, with a blacksnake whip, was just the forward march of British "civilization". Black and Tans in Ireland was just reminding the Irish of their former benefactor, Cromwell, and his gentle ways of cradling Irish babies on the points of his soldiers' pikestaffs.

Refusing the persistent half-century requests of London and more than 220 British cities for permission by Parliament to tax the lands of the British lords in those cities is but another illustration of the advantages of British "democracy".

A king and his lords, dukes, earls and lesser "aristocrats" have for centuries kept the minds of the mass of the Briitsh people in chains, so that it has become an axiom that, "An Englishman dearly loves a lord".

By this means, and every known political trick and device, they have controlled the British Parliament for centuries, and dictated Britain's laws. Their laws have created an economic condition that grinds the people and the industries of Britain under the heel of the "aristocracy", and keeps vast multitudes of men, women and children in cruelest poverty and ignorance.

A San Francisco lady recently visited the old home of her parents and ancestors in England. On her return, she said that the condition of great numbers of the people there is so terrible that the doctors are making a mistake in keping them alive.

Landlord Pays No Taxes

From William the Conquerer down almost to our day, successive kings and Parliaments have granted to the ruling classes or permitted them to enclose or steal common lands, and lands that actually belonged to others. By this means, more than ninety per cent of the land of Britain in city, town and county is in the possession of the "aristocracy".

Under British law, the owner pays no taxes on his land. The occupier or tenant must pay all the taxes levied against the land of these lords, under penalty of criminal punishment if he does not do so. Just after the present war for "democracy" began, in September 1939, the London Times reported that one thousand two hundred persons had been summoned to the Bow Street Police Court, to be punished criminally for not having paid their landlords taxes.

That section of London is its worst slum district. It is habited by the poorest, downtrodden unfortunates in Britain, many sleping ten and fifteen in a room. Yet, each of these poor creatures has to pay his proportion of his landlord's taxes, as well as his rent.

However, these lordly tax-shirkers never fail to collect the rent of their land from the tenants.

It is estimated that they are collecting from tenants, throughout Britain, more than two billion dollars each year in rent, way-leaves and royalties—all from the people and the industries of Britain. Yet, they pay no taxes as owners of the land.

In many places in Britain, where the lord lives in his castle, there is about it a great domain, consisting sometimes of hundreds of thousands of acres. In such cases, the lordly owner is taxed as occupier of the castle and fifty or sixty acres of land about it. The rest of his land is appraised as unoccupied, and he pays no taxes on it. One such lord, at the beginning of the war, moved from his 200-room castle into a twenty-room house nearby. By this means he was exempted from paying any taxes on his castle, paying only as an occupier of the smaller house.

Most of the lands of these lords are held as deer parks. No one is permitted to cultivate or raise any food there. They are held in wild state. The Scottish Liberal Party, in its Land Book of 1938, states that the total area of Scotland is 19,200,000 acres, of which its latest returns show that 3,432,966 acres were in 189 deer forests during 1920. That Book estimates that 2,895,618 acres of these Scottish deer forests could be utilized for crofter's holdings—small farmers.

In England and Wales the deer park situation is said to be worse than in Scotland. Even a few of the Tory lords are protesting in Parliament against the holding of these enormous acreages of deer parks uncultivated, when the Nation is in such dire straits through the war, and must ration food to the people, and beg the United States to give it food free of cost.

Why should the American people be taxed billions of dollars each year by President Roosevelt, for a people who will not use their ample resources to raise food for themselves?

Why should the American people be taxed billions of dollars on their every necessity of life, each year, to pay for war munitions that are given free—lend and lease to a people who will not make their British lords pay taxes on their lands that yield them billions of dollars in rent each year?

Will President Roosevelt tell the British Tory Government that they must first raise food in their enormous acreages of deer parks before the American people will make free gifts of food to them?

Will President Roosevelt tell the British Tory Government that they must first collect a land value tax, payable out of the billions of dollars that these lords receive in rent for their land, before the American people will lease or lend to them any food, or arms, or other war material? With such an enormous annual rental, Britain can easily pay for everything that it needs.

Write to your local newspaper, and tell your neighbors what you think about it.

Write to President Roosevelt and demand that he cease taxing the American people billions of dollars each year to supply food, war munitions and ships free—lending and leasing—to the British Tory Government, when it has ample resources to furnish itself with everything it needs.

Let the people of Britain throw off the shackles of the British landlords, and help themselves, before they come begging from us.

Why Should Draftees Fight ?

Mr. Harold L. Ickes,
Secy. of the Interior,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Ickes:

Have just been reading, in this morning's papers, the account of your speech last night at Hartford, Conn., in which you dub Mr. Lindbergh a "stooge" for Hitler, and "American Quisling", etc. and his friends as "Nazi wolves in pacifist clothing".

It happens that I am one of Mr. Lindbergh's friends and followers, and as a Jeffersonian Democrat I couldn't be anything else. Being one of his friends I am, as a matter of course, included by you in the category of "Nazi wolves".

The thing that, in particular, struck me about your speech, was the following passage:—

> "We must decide—NOW—whether we are willing to buy a Craven's truce, as Lindbergh urges upon us, or work, sacrifice, fight and die, if need be, for liberty in the inspiration of Washington, Lincoln and Churchill."

Since you mention Mr. Churchill, I am inclosing a little booklet which contains some excerpts from two of his speeches. These were delivered by him back in 1909, when he was stumping England and Scotland, fighting side by side with David Lloyd George in the great budget fight. Lloyd George at that time was chancellor of the exechequer, as you probably know.

I would suggest that you read, carefully, these extracts from Mr. Churchill's speeches, one of which he delivered on the floor of the commons and the other at a meeting in Edinburgh. And after reading them carefully, I would suggest that you make subject of your next speech, an address particularly for the benefit of our draftees, telling them in no uncertain terms, WHY it is their sacred duty to fight and die to safeguard the unearned profits of the Rent Racketeering Peers of England.

Speak right up to the boys and tell them what they are expected to Die for.

I conceive it to be our duty, not only to tell these boys that it is "their duty to die", "if need be", but I think we should also tell them WHY it is their duty. Give them a glimpse of the wonderful "Ideal" you want them to die for, so that, like Nathan Hale, (Maybe) they will regret that they have but one life to lay down for the benefit of the Roosevelt-Astor-British Peerage combinations of Rent Racketeers.

Incidentally, you have aroused my curiosity. When you talk about "die, if need be", you use the word "we". That includes you. Hence, I gather that YOU are ready to "die, if need be", in this war.

Have you picked out the spot where you are going to "die, if need be"? Are you figuring on joining the British army and dieing in England, or do you expect to make YOUR supreme sacrifice with the British army in Africa, or Syria?

Or, are you planning to lay down your life in defense of Rooseveltian "liberty" in your swivel chair in Washington?

Some time ago Mr. Roosevelt called Col. Lindbergh a "copperhead"—i.e. a reptile. You and some others have been free at calling Lindbergh and his friends "wolves", "Quislings" and "Traitors".

I wonder whether some of you would be as free about calling us names of that kind, face to face, where you might have the opportunity of blocking a sock on the jaw with your chin?

Its perfectly safe business to call men names at a distance of a hundred or a thousand miles. I long ago came to the conclusion that calling such names at a very safe distance, is the measure of the bravery of such men (this characterization is just a matter of courtesy) as you and Mr. Roosevelt.

I have often heard it said of men of known bravery, that they would never ask another man to go into a danger spot where they were afraid to go themselves. That being true, how does it happen that you and Mr. Roosevelt are not over in the trenches, where you are so anxious to send American boys to pull chestnuts out of the fire for the landed aristocracy of England?

May I sugest that you and Mr. Roosevelt get together real soon on another fireside chat, and that you devote it to showing our draftees just WHY it is their sacred "duty" to die for the Rent Racketeers of England. Speak us, Harold, speak up.

Sincerely, G. J. KNAPP.

Ha-ha-ha, Roosevelt Blames Chaos on Contempt of Law

"Ha, ha, ha ! . . . . I committed enough illegal acts as assistant Secretary of the Navy to send me to the penitentiary for 999 years . . . . but we declared war and that made it right . . . "

NEW YORK,—President Roosevelt said the failure of men and nations to observe the maxim, "Obedience to law is liberty", accounts for the "tragedy and chaos which today threaten all that we love."

The president made his observation in a letted to Chester W. Cuthell president of the Columbia university law school class of 1907, of which Roosevelt was a member. He expressed his thanks to his former classmates for a portrait of him which they presented to the university.

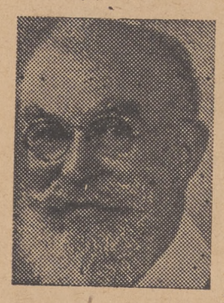
HEALTH-GERMS

By George Starr White, M. D.

SUPERSTITIONS DIE HARD

As long as there are profits to be made out of a superstition, there will be plenty of "hard-headed business men" to keep it alive with every resource at their command. But let a certain superstition interfere with their profits, and they are eager to hasten its death.



Dr. Geo. Starr White

For instance, a few years ago fumigation was demanded by police-protected "h e a l t h --d e p artments". Rooms were closed, and this and that horrid-smelling stuff was burned to drive away "witches" in the form of "germs".

Little by little the public learned by experience that this fumigation business damaged furniture and wood-work; and made those nearby, sick. The landlord lost much patronage if a fumigation had taken place in his apartment-house.

"Hard-headed business-men" put a stop to all this fumigation foolishness. Soon the biggest medical journals came out with the "information" that fumigation was useless, and the soap and water and sunlight were all that was required "to make any place safe".

Yet after all this advertising of the uselessness of fumigation, news got out that many public buildings and schools in the Middle West had been closed in order that they might be fumigated. It seems that a person was found walking thru these places who was said to have a "suspicious throat trouble". He had business to attend to in a public building, in which several teachers had also been the day he passed thru.

The scare was started. The stock of fumigating supplies evidently was a burden to somebody—hence the "official order" to have the places fumigated—so fumigating stuff could be sold at a profit!

Carrying a "charm" is safe and should make any superstitious person "feel protected". Fumigation to kill "germs" is out of fashion. The carrying of a "lucky charm" never goes out of style.

The Mazdaznan Philosophy

Man is indeed, a most wonderfully endowed instrument, but it takes a master hand to manipulate him. And that master hand is the invisible hand of our entity—our ego. But, like the Savior upon the waters of Galilee, "he sleepeth", while our little cargo is sinking under the great pressure of ancetral waves about us and the storms of suggestion over us. We are sinking! Still, fear not! Ask thy Savior, sleeping within thee, to awaken, May the gentle breezes of thy quivering voice whisper into him the breath of thy life. And as you see him arising, rise with him, in all the majesty and glory of perfect manhood or womanhood, and command the winds and the waves to obey thy will. Will the storms of life obey? Certainly they will, but you must follow the law. Declare: "Peace, be still!" on the breath. yea, "be still and know that I am—God."

Every little insect finds its food, its shelter, & its rest.
The birds do fairly feast upon what's good, what's best.
Then every beast & reptile here & there enjoys its life,
While plants just thrive & bloom galore in spite of strife.
Yes, man alone is filled with ills and fears.
He does not comprehend the way; his eyes are filled with tears.
And yet in all his sorrow, grief and strife,
The still, small voice is offering him new life.
Let him remember, just for once and all,
That God is a bounteous giver to the big as well as to the small.
We need so little that to think of it be fairly sin,
For with eating and drinking our life did not begin.
Oh, no, the life rests there where unknown is death;
Its origin is Infinite; its emanations—Breath.

Doctor Holds Serum No Cure In Infantile Paralysis Cases

CLEVELAND,—Use of serum in treatment of infantile paralysis was declared worthless in a paper presented at the American Medical association's convention here.

Dr. Harold K. Faber of San Francisco declared "there should be no obligation upon the physician to give serum and he should not be held responsible for having withheld it if the outcome is unfavorable."

He was one of seven physicians participating in a panel discussion of poliomyelitis sponsored by the A. M. A. and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

"There is little to support the popular belief that serum is actually curative and there is a good deal of evidence to deny the belief," Faber said.

He expressed doubt that one attack of the disease produced immunity in a patient, and that vaccination was a valuable preventive.

"Prevention of poliomyelitis may come from a simpler process than vaccination—perhaps from hormones, vitamins or something else," he added.

Roosevelt's Jewish Eyes

Isador Lubin Economic Lens Through Which FDR Looks at Defense

By W. B. Ragsdale

Staff Correspondent, The Union's Special News Service

WASHINGTON,—Every morning Isador Lubin takes a pencil for an Alpenstock and goes climbing up mountains of statistics to a point from which he can catch a new vision of that day's status of America's armament program.

When he is sure of his footing, certain that he has caught a clear view of the essential details of the economic valley that lies below these mountains of figures, he jots down his observations and passes them along to President Roosevelt.

Son of a chain store clothier, Isador Lubin, expert statistician, has become a human funnel through which defense figures reach the president.

LAND TAXATION OR RENT COLLECTION?

Land and Tax reformers must eventually compose their differences and adopt ways of propaganda that are effective with the masses outside their narrow circles. These reformers are now divided into cults over a number of questions that are unreal or unimportant, and unworthy of scientists whose single object should be the recognition and popularization of the Master Science of Economics.

Ingersoll

Perhaps the most ridiculous difference between economic reformers is regarding the approach to the objective (about which latter there is and can be no difference). This common objective is (a) to collect all social or land values, for ALL social or government use; and (b) to concurrently remove all taxation from consumption; from labor products.

In sixty years I have never encountered any difference between many contenders, as to this single objective with its two integral branches. But this vital basic Georgist movement is nevertheless afflicted with such schisms as (a) right and left, (b) 100% Georgists, and partial; (c) 'mere single taxers'; and (d) fiscal and moral; (e) all-at-oncers and step-by-steppers; (f) taxationists and Georgists; and others, not to mention the NEO-Georgist bundle of gratuitous distinctions, such as East vs West, Rent Collection vs Tax Collection, modern, vs 'school of 79', scientific school, etc. And of all these I think I may say that not one iota of substantial difference exists, except as to method or terminology.

Without the slightest inclination to minimize the crucial importance of both terminology or definition, and method, or desire to unduly standardize procedure or discourage individual action, I think clear differentiation in these matters is imperative. And in this spirit I will comment on these alleged differences.

The most substantial difference is between those who would take ALL of rent forthwith, and those who would take all needed by government, leaving the residue, if any, for later decision. This I claim is too remote to divide reasoning people. This disposes of (a, b, c, d). (e) seems sufficiently answered by the truism that 'Rome was not built in a day'. (f) is the argument pending.

The Neo (Stockton) and HGSSS idiosyncracies as to no politics, organization, land values, only rent, etc. I will ignore, refrain and restrain, for this time.

I have endeavored to sufficiently clear the ground for a serious consideration of the most effective approach to the economic problem as between (a) the specific and close-up route of taxation, and (b) the more profound, basic, remote way of land, rent, and the so-called 'moral' appeal.

Please understand I do not suggest these as alternatives, as there is no one more insistant than I upon the full use of these parallel elements. All I aim at advantage, and particularly to develop the full strength of both, especially in the vitally important initial stages of presenting the statement of what until recent years has been known almost exclusively as the Henry George Single Tax.

That Democracy is the equivalent of Socialism is indeed novel. It involves throwing out of democracy all special privilege and bureaucracy just as Jefferson demanded. It also involves confining socialism to socializing only half of 'wealth'—the half that is created by society.

If—like the earth's—Heaven's surface be for sale
WANT must develop there,
And War prevail.
Science alone can liberate us now,
And Henry George, the scientist, shows us how.
—Horatio.

Who Sponsors Refugees?

dress myself to you for I have no other parents in America.

Permit me to tell you, that once in America, I donot want any financial help, as I have a balance with the Guaranty Trust Company, Foreign Department, New York, of about $11,000.—. However this amount is considered unsufficient by the American Consulate who claim still an affidavit of support from American parents. Please inquire about my situation at the Guaranty Trust Company, and you will see, that the fact, of providing me this affidvait of support doesnot include any risk for you. You may feel sure that if I did not want your help, I should not address myself to you, as I donot want to trouble you, even when being parents of mine.

I repeat that your intervention doesnot include any risk for you, and therefore I hope, that you will be able to satisfy my demand.

Please note, that a friend of mine, Mr. Rudi L. Baer is living at NEW YORK, 329 West, 84th Street. However, as he has settled down in America only one year ago, he is not yet considered as an American citizen, and therefore he cannot help me in this case. By same post I am writing him to enter into communication with you.

Thanking you in anticipation for your help, I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours truly
ABRAHAM FRANKENHUIS.

My family is as follows:
Myself: Abraham Frankenhuis, born 19. 6. 1905 at Haaksbergen (Holland).
My wife: Ruth Frankenhuis-Perlstein, born 27. 5. 1914 at Kall (Germany).
My child: Karin Frankenhuis, born 4. 6. 1938 at Haaksbergen (Holland).

Goody, Goody, $11,000

May 31, 1941.

Mr. R. L. Wardburgh,
Guaranty Trust Company of New York, Re: 7F3
140 Broadway, New York City.
Dear Sir:

Your letter of May 23 at hand, with your regrets regarding information concerning the alleged deposit of $11,000 with your institution to the credit of Mr. A. Frankenhuis of Holland. You are advising me to write to Mr. Rudi L. Baer for the information.This is a vicious circle.

Mr. Baer wrote me a letter on May 13, 1941, advising me that a relative of mine, with his wife and three year old child have taken refuge in France, from Holland, and are now waiting for my affidavit of support to receive their visa for entry into the U. S. A. He also assures me in that letter that my relatives will not become a burden upon me because there are on deposit with your institution $11,000 to the credit of Mr. A. Frankenhuis. Mr. Baer suggests that I verify that fact by writing to you, which I did. Now you are referring me to Mr. Baer back again. What sort of a confirmation do you call that?

Yours truly, HARRY H. DORT.

Foreign Dept. In replying refer to 7F4
Mr. Harry Dort, 2nd Ave. and C. St.,
San Diego, California.
Dear Sir:

Your letter of May 31st has been received regarding our suggestion that you write to Mr. Rudi L. Baer for information about the relationship of Mr. A. Frankenhuis with us.

You will appreciate that the relationship of a depositor with a bank is of a confidential nature and that we are not in a position to divulge information concerning accounts maintained with us unless we are authorized to do so by our depositors. If you maintained an account with us we would not advise a third person of the amount of your balance without authortiy to do so.

We suggested that you communicate with Mr. Baer, as upon instructions of Mr. Frankenhuis we furnished him with certain information about the latter's account. Since we have not been authorized to give such information to you, we can only repeat that suggestion.

Very truly yours,
R. L. Wardburgh
Second Vice President.

Do the Relatives Have the Dough ?

June 16, 1941.

Mr. Rudi Baer, 329 West 84th St., New York City
Dear Sir:

After receipt of your letter of May 13 concerning my cousin Frankenhuis and his family, as you informed me in that letter, I wrote immediately to Guaranty Trust Company and inquired concerning the deposit of $11,000 as you instructed me to do. Mr. R. L. Wardburgh replied to my two letters, giving reference 7F3, but stating that he is not at liberty to disclose the financial status of my cousin, referring me back to you. I am not in a position to accept financial responsibility, unless the funds are so placed that my relatives could take care of them promptly upon arrival here. Thanks for writing me.

Yours truly, HARRY M. DORT.

June 18, 1941.

Mr. Harry M. Dort, 2nd Ave. and C. St.,
San Diego, California.
Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of June 16th. I send you enclosed statement of the Guaranty Trust Company per May 31st, 1941, showing the balance of the account of Mr. Frankenhuis. You thus see that the funds are so placed that your relatives can take care of themselves promptly upon arrival here; they are blocked only as long as they live in France.

I therefore hope that you will be able to give them an affidavit, and if you want you may send it to me and I shall forward it, or, if you prefer, you may send it directly to Mr. Frankenhuis.

Thanking you very much in advance,
Yours very truly, RUDI BAER.

Mrs. Ruth Frankenhuis-Perlstein,
c|o Mr. Rudi L. Baer,
329 West 84th St., New York, N. Y.

May 31, 1941—Statement of your account with us as at above date: Balance brought forward $10,732.21.

NOTE: Account blocked by presidential proclamation, withdrawals subject to license.

Editor's Note: We must inform our readers that inspite of the nice bank account staring him in the face, which Harry could unfreeze by merely accepting adoption into the Frankenhuis family, Harry is leaving the door wide open for some sucker to claim kinship with wealthy refugees. As long as our immigration service is loaded with kikes, naturally they will accept any "affidavit" at face value and let the dear relatives swarm into the U. S. A.

British Secret Service Report 1919

(The Beacon Light, Atascadero, Calif.)

Capital

In the financial world the Anglo-American alliance is a well established fact. And as the consortium for China, and the security company for Mexico, show, our brokers and their aids have become the unchallenged financiers of the world. We have been particularly fortunate in our fiscal agents here, Messrs. Pierpont Morgan and Company. The commissions they charged both as our brokers and purchasing agents no doubt were high enough to warrant their summary treatment at the hands of Mr. Balfour during his visit here. But they advantageously placed our many bond issues, and every American holder of these bonds, having now a stake in the Empire, is a defender of its integrity and a potential supporter of its extension, over here. Their services in putting this country into the war may not have been altruistic, but they were none the less effective. They contributed liberally to our Americanization campaign. They ousted Miss Boardman, and through Messrs. Taft and H. P. Davidson they nationalized and directed the American Red Cross, and then internationalized it under the direction of Mr. H. P. Davidson. Through Mr. Thomas Lamont they purchased Harper's Magazine and the New York Evening Post. Through advertisers they control they have exerted widespread influence on newspaper policy. Messrs. Lamont and Davidson gave you invaluable aid at the Peace Conference. They loaned $200,000,000 to Japan that our ally might build a fleet to compete with America on the Pacific carrying routes. Their attempts to retain for us control of the International Merchant Marines are well known to you. And I would be amiss if I did not remind you that they relieved the Government of considerable embarrassment by pensioning worthily the widow of our late Ambassador, Sir Cecil Spring Rice, at a time when the antagonism of Lord Northcliffe made it impossible for us officially to do so. As the greater part of their capital is invested within the Empire, the Government of His Majesty will doubtless have opportunities to appreciate the value of the services of Messrs. Pierpont Morgan and Company.

Events, and Lord Reading, have also brought to our aid the strength of other international financial groups here. The development of China and of Mexico, and possibly also of Russia, will prove a task in which all may harmoniously unite. Sir Edgar and Lady Speyer might perhaps be now allowed to return to England, and the seat in Parliament which Mr. Otto Kahn was about to occupy when war broke out might now be sold to him.

Commerce

Bermudian Mr. Outerbridge directs the New York Chamber of Commerce, as other Loyalists direct the Chamber of Commerce in other cities. Our power over the Commercial Press may best be made clear to you by recalling to your attention the manner in which unchallenged we pass The "American" line to America when we wished to shame this country into resentment of the German blockade, and likewise unchallenged reclaimed it publicly, when—the war being over—it was desirable to do so.

Our censorship, our cable control, and our British-born chartered accountants place us in a position to make American traders accept open bargains openly arrived at. Our control of shipping, and our indisputable pre-eminence in international banking and fiscal affairs, enable us to shut the American trader out of the non-American markets of the world—an exclusion which we can make nearly absolute by passport regulations and by our officers at the Port of New York who keep us informed of the data found on returning American commercial agents.

In the South American field we have established as the result of the Bunsen Mission, not only admirable commercial relations with Peru, but also a credit of $50,000,000.00 in Uruguay, and $50,000,000.00 in Argentina. Moreover, we placed on American officials the onus of the various South American blacklists we drew up, and thus created an antipathy to the American trader which further circumscribes his field. South of the Rio Grande, an American trader will soon be as rare as an Indian on the shores of Manhattan—and as much appreciated. I would suggest that His Majesty be advised to recognize the valuable services of our leading South American Consuls and agents, especially honouring those who judiciously blacklisted popular native traders in the name of America.

In fact, American commerce exists largely by our favor. And of the traders, the more astute, realizing their position, have wisely become one with us in Imperial spirit and purpose; while the less astute have mostly become bankrupt.

Another Fellowship Booklet!

"New Dealers in Office"

YOU doubtless recall that last year's Dies Committee gave it out that 563 Reds, or members of Red Front organizations, were being employed in Federal government positions under the patronage of the New Deal Administration. But not until you have it brought home to you how they are allocated in vital government departments, does the menace which they constitute to this free Republic come home to you.

This publishing house has just completed a 64-page booklet giving the names, and some of the records of the principal New Dealers. Blended in among the hundreds of alien names are the Dies Committee's identifications of those who embrace the soviet creed. It is a list that freezes the blood! If you are disposed to question it, send for copies of "New Dealers in Office" and see what the nation's "Democrats" are harboring.

You can buy them for 15c each, 8 for $1, or 100 for $10. Address—
